

THE DE

Vol. xxiv., No. 8.

DeLand,

Mr. E. Bly, of DeLand, guest at the New Seaside Inn week.

Daytona Beach Hotel arrivals: Chas. E. Servis, Springfield, O.; T. H. Simmons, Akron, O.; O. Arnold, Jr., Scranton, Pa.; Mrs. W. B. Long, Chicago; Henry Jones, Cornwall.

White House guests: Mrs. Chas. Talboth, Mary Glenn Talboth, Paris, Ky.; J. W. Hallam and wife, Carson City, Mich.; T. R. Campbell, Binghamton, Bertha Clark, New York City; Mrs. M. C. Goode, Mrs. Zelma Goode, Campbellsville, Ky.

The Misses. Keating assisted by several young ladies, gave an enjoyable party at the summer house in front of the Daytona Beach Hotel this week. Fudge and delicious concoctions from the chafing dish were served as refreshments.

Keating's Casino was crowded Wednesday evening at a dance given by the boys, which was much enjoyed by those who linger for the music or tripping the measures on the famous floor. About one hundred and fifty invitations were issued. The picture was very pretty in the charming array of youthful faces and attractively gowned participants. Among those we noted were Miss Grace Keating, white organdy over buff silk, trimmings of yellow roses and satin ribbon; Miss Ruby Spaulding, red silk mull, garnitures, red roses, satin ribbons; Miss Ruth Keating, lavender organdy over silk, with appliqued net; Miss Fay Stewart, green silk, white roses; Miss Ruth Coates, delicate blue and white mull; Miss Pearl Spalding, white silk mull over silk; Miss Grace Lester, white organdy; Miss Lillian Dressner, white over silk; Miss Lois VanValzah, Alice blue silk, cluny lace, Mrs. VanValzah, blue silk mull, black velvet. The music was much enjoyed and was furnished by Mrs. A. S. Spangler, pianist, Mr. Harry Brigham, violin, Messrs. Sweeney and Thomas. Refreshments of punch and cream.

Mr. Mark Bradley, a popular journalist, is a guest at the New Seaside Inn. He has many friends here who are glad to welcome him again.

Mrs. Edward Vosmer, of Cincinnati, O., who is at the Daytona Beach Hotel, is expecting her husband today. Mr. Vosmer is prominently known in Cincinnati, being cashier of the National Bank.

Surf Crest arrivals: Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mari-

St. North Ill., Mr. Chicago; Mr. Paine, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Belfour.

Mr. Douglas Horton is a guest at the Pinchurst.

Mr. Wm. Haight and bride are enjoying the southern climate at the family cottage on Peninsula Drive.

Miss Lillian Dressner entertained a few friends at a card party this week. Miss Lester assisting. Refreshments were served. Music and conversation formed a pleasing variation.

Miss Long, of Cincinnati, O., is a guest at the Daytona Beach Hotel. Miss Long is a musician of marked ability, having sung in grand opera for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jaques, of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester and daughter, Miss Grace, of Binghamton, N. Y., are residing in the Hilton cottage on the ocean front for the season.

New Seaside Inn arrivals: A. Brover, Cincinnati, O.; M. H. Brown, Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. L. H. Robbins, child and maid, Cleveland O.; W. S. Hopkins, wife and child, Malden, Mass.; W. C. Jackson, DeLand; Mrs. Maude Jones, DeLand; Mrs. E. E. Birmingham, Harrie Morris, DeLand; Mr. W. C. McMillen, Chicago; A. P. Marsh and wife, New Brookfield, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtas, New York; Miss Grace Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Diggett returned this week from an enjoyable trip to Palm Beach.

Mrs. Thomas Keating and little daughter, Edna, returned Saturday night from an extended trip to Jacksonville and Ocala.

A pleasant auto party enjoyed a trip to DeLand Wednesday evening. They viewed all of the inland scenery and artistic beauty of the town. The party was composed of Misses Julia Kingston, Carrie Freeman, Florence Horn, Mabel Wakefield and Frances Haight.

Miss Lillian Morris, of Jacksonville, is the guest of Miss Julia Kingston at the New Seaside Inn for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurrus, and daughter, Elizabeth, Miss Doran and Mr. and Mrs. John Deer enjoyed a launch ride to the inlet last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield, of Aurora, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gage on Seabreeze avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller, of Marietta, Ohio, who have been at the Surf Crest, have taken rooms at James L. Wilcox's on Seabreeze avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are well known, having been here last winter.

Miss Sallie Holland, a popular member of the younger society element, entertained a number of friends last week in her launch, the Wide Awake. The Halifax gives plenty of scenery and amusement, and the merry party enjoyed its attractions as far as Port Orange. The participants were Misses Irene Keating, Elsie Coates, Ruth Stewart, Gladys Wannacott, Margaret Johnson, Mamie Schwartz, and Grace Burdick; Messrs. Marion Walsh, Harry Hathaway, Coltran Keating, Seymour Mason, Jack Strother, Roland Barze, Thomas Wilder, Stanley Pettipher and Alfred Strother. Mrs. Herbert Coate chaperoned the party and added much to the afternoon's pleasure.

A novel party or show will be given at the New Seaside Inn tonight under the auspices of Misses Ruth Stewart, Helen Keating and Grace Mason. The entertainment will be given for some charitable purpose, in which these little ladies are particularly interested.

SEABREEZE

The pupils of the Seabreeze High School are very much interested in the Bush & Safford piano concert, and Miss Frances Sparber is one of the interested workers, who will be glad to be favored by as many votes as you may send her for same. A library is also greatly needed.

The Lyceum Course at the First Baptist church of Daytona, has been well attended. Monday night though bitter cold, the "Yankee Doodle" carried a number of beach patrons.

Prof. and Mrs. Wakefield gave an enjoyable candy party in honor of the high school students Friday night.

Miss Maud Mallory entertained about fifteen guests last week at her home on Peninsula Drive. She was assisted by Miss Lila Reed.

The girls are preparing a special program for a show which will be given in March for the benefit of a library for the school, a much needed appropriation.

Mr. Wm. Lily, of Ormond, has removed his family to the cottage formerly occupied by Mr. J. W. Booth, where they will reside in the future.

Messrs. C. F. Burgman and H. G. Wilson, prominent business men of the city, chartered Mr. S. E. Gilmore's car for a trip to DeLand last week.

The Lucile took Mr. and Mrs. Balkwell and party to Titusville last week.

A Boston party from the Austin chartered the Dixie for a trip to St. Augustine last week, which was much enjoyed. Messrs. Max and M. Fowler also enjoyed the cruise.

Mrs. Charles McHardy and two children, of British Columbia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Water-son.

The H. G. Wilson Company sold several lots this week to people who expect to shortly erect cottages.

Arbor day was observed by the Seabreeze school trees being planted in honor of two heroes, Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee. Mr. Clark G. Smith photographed the party.

P.P.P. Cures Rheumatism

Read what Nicholas Lang, the largest retail grocer in Savannah says about P. P. P.

F. V. LIPPMAN, Savannah, Ga.,

Dear Sir:—

For many years I consumed much medicine, and in fact tried every means in my power to get cured of that terrible disease, rheumatism, which had undermined my health. I visited Hot Springs, Ark., without gaining relief, and at last in sheer desperation I took P. P. P. (Lippman's great remedy), and was in a short time entirely cured. In the eight years since that time I have not had a symptom of rheumatism.

P. P. P. did the work to my entire satisfaction and made a quick and permanent cure.

Yours truly,

Nicholas Lang.
